

Meet David Isern

David Isern is a corporate lawyer with Descartes Systems Group where he serves as corporate counsel overseeing mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, procurement, and risk management.

Dedicated to community service, David is a proud board member of The Humane Society of Kitchener Waterloo and Stratford Perth and currently serves as secretary of the board and chair of the governance committee. Additionally, he volunteers as a legal specialist mentor at several start-up incubators and has taught business law at post-secondary institutions.

Having lived in seven countries, David has extensive experience working on multi-disciplinary teams. He is bilingual and offers legal services in both English and Spanish.