

THE HUMANE SOCIETY TEAMS UP WITH LOCAL BREWERIES FOR ST. PAW-TRICKS DAY BEER TASTING FUNDRAISER.

EVENT DATE: MARCH 13TH AT 7PM.

KITCHENER WATERLOO STRATFORD PERTH, ONTARIO: It's time to put away your winter blues and dust off your green attire for the first ever St.Paw-Tricks Day virtual beer tasting fundraiser hosted by the Humane Society in partnership with the local breweries.

"After a long and challenging winter, we are looking forward to hosting this fun and uplifting event that supports local breweries and helps raise funds for the vulnerable animals in our communities." said Bryan Chatten, Manager, Events and Partnerships. "Join us online and let the breweries educate and inform you, while savoring each sip of their great tasting beer. Anyone over the age of 19 is welcome."

WHEN: The virtual beer tasting event will take place on March 13th @ 7pm ONLINE. Beer sample kits will be available for pick up at the Kitchener and at the Stratford Humane Society locations.

COST: Tickets are $40.00. Each ticket holder will receive six (6) 12oz. Beer Cans, one (1) 50g bag of Green Popcorn provided by Little Prince Cinema and Piller's Salami Trail Mix! Tickets are available on the Humane Society website.

PARTICIPATING BREWERIES:

Descendants Beer and Beverage Co.
Jobsite Brewing Co.
Waterloo Brewing
Red Circle Brewing Co.

"As we head into the spring, the warmer weather brings with it an influx of animals in our shelters." said Nick Burke, Director of Development. "Given the success of our virtual wine tasting fundraiser last fall, we are counting on the St. Paw-Tricks Day event to help us offset the costs associated with the medical treatments and care of the animals in need in our centers."

Further details and tickets are available on the Humane Society's St. Paw-Tricks Day event page. Event updates and brewery highlights are posted regularly on then Humane Society's social media channels.
